

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATOR DAY

WHEREAS: Georgia, home of Atlanta, an Olympic city, welcomes people from all nations, thrives upon the diversity of its citizenry and is proud to support international educators in our classrooms; and

WHEREAS: International educators open our youth's eyes to other countries and cultures in preparing them for success in our interconnected world; and

WHEREAS: Our world is a better place when people have the opportunity to meet, share with and learn from individuals whose backgrounds, ideas, perspectives and ways of life are different from their own; and

WHEREAS: The mission of the Visiting International Faculty Program is to transform children's lives through cultural exchange; and

WHEREAS: The Visiting International Faculty Program, believing that every school should have an international teacher, has brought hundreds of international educators to the Atlanta area since 1999, and those teachers have had a tremendous impact on our children; and

WHEREAS: We commend the Visiting International Faculty Program for its priceless contributions to our community; now

THEREFORE: I, SONNY PERDUE, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim May 2, 2003, as INTERNATIONAL EDUCATOR DAY throughout our state.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this second day of April in the year of our Lord two thousand three.
