

SHARE DAY

WHEREAS: Project Share provides emergency assistance to Georgians who need help with basic necessities such as housing, food, medical care and utility services. The program assists the elderly, the disabled, the unemployed, the sick and others who are in need of a helping hand; and

WHEREAS: Project Share is administered by the Salvation Army and is funded by electric utility customers who donate through their monthly electric bills. All contributions are forwarded to the Salvation Army and allocated for assistance in the county where the donation was made; and

WHEREAS: Georgia's electric utility companies and the Salvation Army are excellent examples of businesses and charitable organizations working together to help solve a community problem, and it is indeed appropriate to recognize them for their cooperative efforts to help our state's needy citizens; now

THEREFORE: I, SONNY PERDUE, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim August 4, 2003, as SHARE DAY in Georgia and urge our citizens to support this important endeavor.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 31st day of July in the year of our Lord two thousand three.

